

GENEROSITY

A special section of The Ark

'Blackie's Hay Day' benefits library

Noelle and Sydney Hart

Adults and kids queue up for activities at Blackie's Hay Day.

PHOTOS ALLISON HART

WHO: Bookmarks

WHEN: Sept. 27

WHAT: Blackie's Hay Day drew 2,000 patrons for a day of pony rides, carnival games, jumpy houses and face painting activities for children, along with live music, animal shows and food trucks. Local sponsors and donors included the Tiburon Peninsula Foundation, Purple Monkey Salon, Vineyard Vines, Stacy Achuck and Missy Zech of Decker Bullock Sotheby's International Realty; and the Hart, Runnfeldt, Wilhelm and Winston families of Tiburon; and Belvedere Community Foundation, Bo Arlander, and Vy and Matt Hyman of Belvedere. Local co-chairs were Allison Hart of Tiburon and Afsaneh Zolfaghari of Belvedere; local volunteers included Tiburon's Juliette Bartholomew, Samantha

Chatham, Monica Coleman, Melissa Cristo, Tina Davis, Melissa Divita, Jennifer Doolittle, Colleen Fried, Adrea Goldberg, Donna Louzides, Becky Miller, Whitney Morgan, Gilly Morrell, Kenna Norris, Lynn Penati, Amanda Rickel, Isabelle Schuman, Laureen Spector, Emily Viola, and Elizabeth Wilhelm; and Belvedere's Megan Escher, Caroline Kesmodel, Amy Manning, Jane Stiteler, and Ariane Zewe.

BENEFITING: The event raised $30,000 for the children and teen programs of the Belvedere-Tiburon Library.

VISIT: beltlibrary.org

DID YOU KNOW? Co-chair Afsaneh Zolfaghari gave birth to her son, Garret, four weeks before the event. He was the youngest co-volunteer on the field.